Parental Objection to Release of Student Information to Military

Recruiters, College/University Recruiters or Prospective Employers: 2017 – 2018 School Year

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Under the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), as amended by the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), public high schools must give the names, addresses and telephone numbers of students to military recruiters, college/university recruiters and prospective employers if the recruiters request the information (ESSA, Title VIII, §8528). However, students or their parents have the right to instruct the school in writing that this information is not to be released.

If you do not consent to the release of this information to 1) military recruiters, 2) college/ university recruiters and/or 3) prospective employers, please check the appropriate box or boxes below.

- Do NOT release student contact information to military recruiters.
- Do NOT release student contact information to college and university recruiters.
- Do NOT release student contact information to prospective employers.

Please return this form to your child's school as soon as possible to ensure your wishes are respected.
